Queen Creek: Status Report

March 28, 2012

Queen Creek Coalition, working in conjunction with the Access Fund, has re-engaged Resolution Copper in negotiations with the goal of maximizing rock climbing in the Queen Creek region. In December, 2011 Resolution presented an offer that was not acceptable to QCC. Representatives of QCC have countered that proposal with a list of alternatives - negotiations are continuing.

Alpine Snow Skills Seminar & Outing

Due to the lack of snow on Mt Humphreys - we'll try it in Colorado! Memorial day weekend, May 25-28. Friday - drive up to Colorado (most likely to Mt. Snowdon), Saturday - will be an abbreviated snow skills seminar, Sunday - summit attempt, Monday - drive home. Limited number of participants. ## AMC 48th Birthday Party at Cactus Flower Wall

Saturday, March 31, a lively group of over 30 AMC'ers celebrated the 48th Birthday of the Arizona Mountaineering Club. The Arizona Mountaineering Club was founded in 1964 for the purpose of promoting and teaching safe rock climbing. Today the AMC has over 300 members who are involved in all aspects of rock climbing, mountaineering and various other outdoor sports. AMC members range from the occasional weekend climber to those who attempt the highest mountains around the world.

The group climbed on 18+ climbs set up on both the Lower and Upper Decks of Cactus Flower Wall. The climbs ranged from mellow 5.6's to knarly 5.10's. Each climb had its own rope so that climbers could easily move around somewhat like an outdoor rock gym.

Special thanks must go to Frank Vers, Jeff Nagel, David Everett, and Bill Fallon for helping set up the anchors for the climbs so that when the large group arrived with the ropes they could hook in and start climbing. Most of the climbs have bolted anchors which made for a quick set up. Special thanks should also go to Kim and Dave McClintic and to Curtis Stone for meeting the larger group, signing them in, and doing a great job of getting the folks to the crag.

Afterwards we met at Greasewood Flat for some excellent chow, drinks and conversation, all arranged by Kim.

Look forward to more AMC events and the continuing stellar track record of the AMC.

Congratulations ORC Students!

It was another great Basic Outdoor Rock Climbing School in March, aside from some weather issues and Jeff Nagel's sick puppy (a story for another time). To a person, everyone was enthusiastic and picked up the skills very quickly, making the weeknight sessions at Cactus Park and PRG run like clockwork. As one example of the quick studies in the class, Patrick Fleckenstein was so good at rope coiling, I volunteered him to demonstrate at PRG for everyone present and for the next Basic ORC School in October; a good example of no good deed going unpunished!

Saturday in the McDowells was a perfect weather day and everyone was able to cycle through all the stations and introduce the fingertips to that wonderful and sharp McDowells granite. Everyone did very well with a minimum of bloodshed and not a single report of tears on the big rappel with Rogil. We all worked until 4:00 and then headed for Greasewood Flat for social hour and debt payment (remember the beer rule!). Sunday was another story with a forecast that was so bad we just had to bag it without even trying; sure enough, the weather lived up to the forecast of rain, wind, and cold. However, you would never have known that we missed our Sunday climbing day in Queen Creek with the way everyone climbed on the following Saturday.

Weather for the Grad climbs could not have been better and we all had a great time in the Supes, McDowells, and on the classic Monk. Jeff's sick puppy necessitated a cancellation on Hanging Gardens, but with a little shuffling and a terrific group of instructors and students, everyone got a full day of single and multi-pitch climbing followed by the traditional Grad Party hosted by Tom and Randi Folwell.

Thanks to all the instructors and grad climb leaders who volunteered so much of their time and energy to make this class happen. And a special thanks to every one of the students who brought so much energy and made this class so much fun! So, get out and climb, have fun, and come back in October to help make the next class as big a success. ~Bill Fallon

AMC on Ice

On the weekend of March 9&10 - 5 AMCsers headed up to beautiful Ouray, Colorado for the AMC Beginning Ice Climbing Seminar. Climbers learned the basics of ice climbing; including use of crampons & ice tools, monkey hang, X-position, and climbing in an alpine environment. There were 2 days of top roping fat ice in the Ouray Ice Park, on the South Park and School-room walls. Congratulations to our new ice climbers - they're all hooked to go back next year!
